

Herrington Homes Corporation

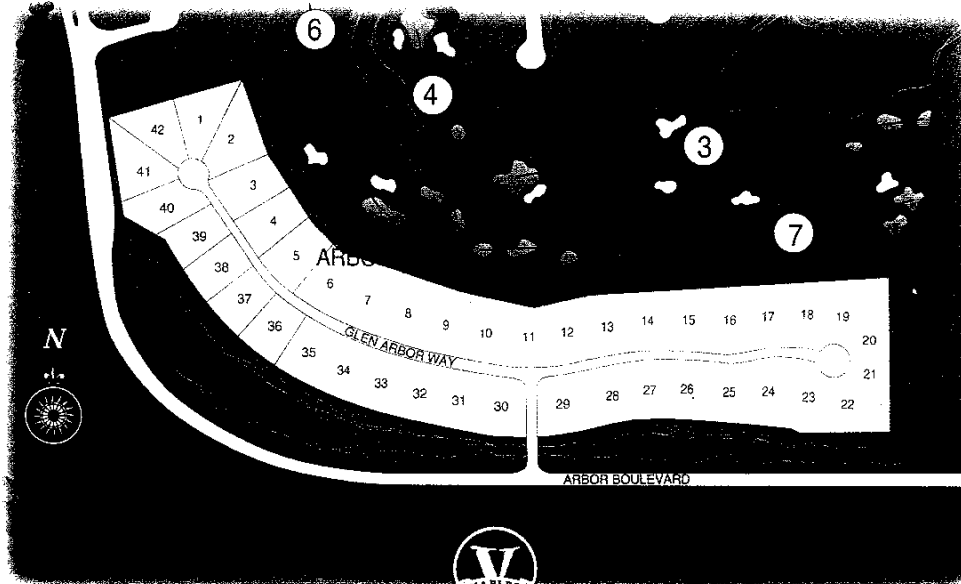

The husband and wife team of Douglas and Roseann Cloce, owners of Herrington Homes Corp., are dedicated to providing unique and creative designs for homeowners. The firm has been building in the Boca Raton and Jupiter areas of Palm Beach County for 12 years, offering a variety of residences from luxury single-family homes to Key West-style beach houses.

The floor plans Herrington Homes Corp. are presenting at Vineyards reflect the latest in stylish architecture. These innovative designs capture the Florida lifestyle by providing tropical views from spacious well-appointed rooms.

"We are creating residences that offer new concepts designed to enhance Florida living," Douglas said. "Creativity in construction is the satisfaction of our business."

Herrington Homes Corp. is a member of the National Association of Home Builders, the Gold Coast Builders Association, the Collier County Building Industry Association and Florida Home Builders Association.
