

The Cypress

A vaulted entry and gallery foyer defined by gracious columns provides a grand entry for this impressive home. Stunning views of the veranda and pool are revealed through the curved wall of glass that distinguishes the living room. There is a large island kitchen with breakfast nook and a leisure room with built-in entertainment center. Zero corner sliding glass doors open the room to create the perfect setting for outdoor entertaining. The veranda that stretches across the back of the home offers a complete outdoor kitchen. The master suite is a true retreat, with a gallery entry, an over-sized walk-in closet and a master bath with twin vanities, a Roman tub and a separate shower enclosure. A charming privacy garden surrounds the bath. The home is richly detailed with stepped and coffered ceilings, decorative columns and sculptured niches.
